

Designing a Product

Ways to design a product:

- mind map - to gather ideas
- mood board - to experiment with ideas for the “look and feel” of the product - e.g. colours, typefaces, imagery
- visualisation diagram - to create an idea of what the product will look like
- assets table - to specify which images will be used