

AI Data Centres – task 1

The growth of AI is increasing the need for new data centres

Data centres are large buildings which hold the computers that store data. Every time you use the internet you use data centres

As the demand for AI increases, the demand for new data centres increases. As a result we need to build more data centres

AI Data Centres – task 1

Source B: map of new data centres planned in the UK

AI Data Centres – task 1

Source D: photograph of a data centre being built in the UK

AI Data Centres – task 1

Photograph of the inside of a data centre in Switzerland

AI Data Centres – task 1

Photograph of power grids at a data centre in the USA

AI Data Centres – task 1

Photograph of an Amazon data centre in the USA

