

How computers work

Computers are made up of hardware and software.

How computers work

Hardware is the things inside the computer and the things attached to it. You can touch hardware.

How computers work

Software is the programs that run on the computer.

