How computers work

A computer is a machine which s………, p………….. and p…………….. data

People can input things into a computer.

How computers work

A computer is a machine which stores, processes and presents data

People can input things into a computer.
How computers work

Computers are made up of hardware and software.

How computers work

Hardware is the things inside the computer and the things attached to it. You can touch hardware.
This includes:
- input devices
- output devices

How computers work
Input devices allow people to enter data into computers:

- keyboard
- mouse
- …
- …

How computers work

Output devices allow people to get information from a computer:

- screen
- …
- …
- …

How computers work

Software is the programs that run on the computer.